

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and renewals, advertising in the HERALD, orders for job work, etc., etc.:
WILL COOPER, Centerville.
EDWARD RILEY, Livermore.
DAVID ROCKES, Hartford.
J. M. T. SMITH, Jr., Farmville.
S. P. BENNETT, Centerville.
D. G. R. SANDERS, Centerville.
WILLIE MAY, Haynesville.
J. H. HOCKER, Sutton.
T. C. FLOYD, Whitesville.
V. H. RAINS, Rockledge.
HON. R. P. HOCKER, Beaver Dam.
W. A. HUBSON, Cayesville.
MISS NANNIE W. JONES, Horton.

PERSONALS.

Persons in town having visitors or any other item they would like in this column would confer a favor if they would inform this office. The town is not very large, but one hand can't get all over it every day and run a newspaper.

Persons visiting in town not seeing personal mention of themselves must remember the one they are stopping with did not feel interest enough in them to report at this office.

Miss Dora Gibson will teach the school at White Oak, near Horton, this fall.

Mr. J. H. Stevens, of Texas, son of H. H. Stevens, is on a visit to his parents.

Mrs. M. A. Coombs returned recently from a visit to Tar Springs, Breckenridge county.

Mr. C. B. Carson, of No creek, has gone to Petersburg, Tenn., to join a few months.

Miss Alice Sullenger returned recently from a visit to Cloverport and Tar Springs.

Mr. Eldridge Duke, of Owensboro, was in town today or two this week, visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. H. Weller, after an extended visit to her parents in Hardin county, returned home Thursday.

Miss Mary Hunter was quite sick several days last week, but is much improved at this writing.

Freddie Lilly Caselder and wife, of Cayesville, were in town last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kimmel.

Mr. W. Sydney, of Olmstead, Logan county, is a pupil of Hartford College. He boards at Mr. G. H. Williams'.

Mr. C. M. Kinsley, of South Carrollton, was in town last week taking orders for his whisky house at that place.

Judge J. C. Townsend had his buggy painted and is ready for a go. He will probably get off about the 20th.

Misses John S. Cole, G. C. Miller and W. L. Miller, of Horse Branch, were in town Monday and gave us a call.

Misses Nannie and Kate Yeiser, of Cayesville county, have returned to Hartford, and are pupils of Hartford College.

Miss Mattie, daughter of Thos. R. Wood, near Cayesville, was visiting her little cousin, Miss Lillie Kimmel, last week.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Rhoads, mother of Prof. Rhoads, which called him home last week.

Mrs. Morris, the popular milliner of Hartford, has taken charge of the millinery department in H. Small's Trade Palace.

Mr. W. A. Bone, formerly of Russellville, but now of Centerville, called to see us last Saturday and renewed his subscription.

Mr. E. G. Bender, one of the prominent citizens of Millersburg, was in town Monday and honored the HERALD office with a visit.

Mrs. J. W. Ford, and daughter, Miss Jessie, Miss Annie Bowman, Miss Lila and Miss Cox, have returned from a visit to the Exposition.

Mr. Cleora M. Barnett, of No creek, left last Monday for Evanson, Ill., where he will enter the North-western University as a student.

Mr. Jesse Mooradian, of Blue Ball, Hardin county, arrived last Monday and entered Hartford College. He boards at J. H. Weller's.

We are glad to see the pleasant faces of our young friends, Aza Bowman and Howard Holbrook, formerly pupils of Hartford College, back again.

Mrs. Horace English and children, of Hardin county, will reach here today, and will spend a few days with the family of Hon. E. D. Walker.

Mr. H. B. Taylor, of the firm of H. B. Taylor & Co., returned home Sunday, after a week's absence. He purchased a large stock of goods while gone.

Prof. G. W. Short was in town a few hours last Saturday. He has charge of the school at Rockport, instead of Central City, as was announced in HERALD two weeks ago.

Mr. Washington Phillips, a former citizen of Hartford, who has been living in the country for a year or so, has moved back to town and will spend this winter in his town residence.

Mr. Chas. W. Pettit, of Owensboro, representing J. C. Terrell's mills, was in town Wednesday taking orders for his several brands of flour. We had the pleasure of a call from him while here.

Rev. James C. Stewart, of this county, went to visit a brother near City Springs, Ky., about ten days ago and was taken quite sick with bilious fever. He was very sick but at last account he was improving.

Mrs. Lila Blacklock and children, of Clinton county, Ind., reached here Monday evening and will spend a few days with friends and relatives in this county. Her husband, Mr. Charles Blacklock, has gone to Kansas, with a view of finding a home to suit them.

JACOBS OIL
THE GREAT
GERMAN REMEDY
FOR PAIN.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache.

Judge W. F. Gregory went to Owensboro Sunday on legal business.

Mr. L. F. Wornier, the loss boat and shoe maker and dealer, left yesterday for Louisville.

Mr. Vick Barnett, son of Mrs. Amanda Barnett, matriculated in Hartford College Monday.

Miss Annie Woodward, daughter of the late Stephen Woodward, became a student of Hartford College Monday.

Mr. Miles Wright, of Hardin county, was in town Monday and called to see us. He formerly lived in this county.

"Hobbs" Daniel, son of R. J. Daniel, Centerville, Ky., has entered Central College. Hobbs is an exceedingly intelligent lad, and will no doubt make rapid progress in his studies.

John M. Williams and family, of Cayesville, passed through Hartford last Monday en route to the Lone Star State. They will be in South-western Texas. They went in wagons and will camp out.

Mr. W. C. Chapman and wife have gone on an extended visit to friends in Cayesville, Lebanon, and Simpsonville. They will attend the Exposition and Fair while in Louisville.

Red Front is chock full of good things to eat.

Go to Rosenberg's for your boots, shoes, and jeans.

Hartford and vicinity, were visited by refreshing showers, last Sunday.

We have now ready for sale over 200,000 good brick.

Red Front has just received 5 barrels of that white sugar. Never saw anything sell like it.

Nothing for men, boys, children, at remarkable low prices at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

Go to H. B. Taylor & Co. and see their new goods. They have a fine assortment of dry goods, clothing, hats, shoes, notions, etc., and their prices are reasonable.

Roll's celebrated Norman station will be at Sullenger's stable in Hartford for four weeks, beginning last Monday. This fine station is also for sale. Call at the stable or address me at Nelson, Ky.

H. B. Taylor & Co., successors to V. P. Addington, are receiving new goods this week, and invite you to inspect them before purchasing, feeling assured that you will be pleased with their quality and styles, and best of all, with prices.

Remember you can buy a good sewing machine with cover for $20 at Anderson's Bazaar.

Mrs. Jonathan Reid, of Bevier, Mullensburg county, wife of her way last Saturday to visit her son who is attending school near Centerville, but finding school near Centerville, the horse ran away throwing her out of the buggy in which she was riding and bruised her person quite seriously. She sent for Dr. W. J. Berry who remained with her till Sunday. He pronounced her seriously, though not dangerously, hurt; says she is injured internally; but no bones broken.

For twenty-five years I have been severely afflicted with hay fever. While I was suffering intensely I was induced, through Mr. Tichenor's testimony, to try Ely's Cream Balm. The effect was marvellous. It enabled me to perform my pastoral duties without the slightest inconvenience, and I have escaped a return attack. I pronounce Ely's Cream Balm a cure for hay fever.

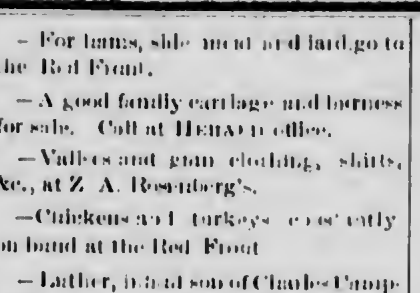

Win. P. Carr, Presbyterial Pastor, Elizabeth, N. J. Not a liquid nor a sniff.

One and one-half bottles of Ely's Cream Balm, entirely cured me of hay fever of ten years standing. Have no trace of it for two years. Alvin A. Perry, Smithfield, N. Y.

I have used Ely's Cream Balm for hay fever, and experienced great relief. I most cordially recommend it as the best of all the many remedies I have tried.—T. H. Jones, Lawyer, Grand Rapids, Mich. Price fifty cents.

To my old customers and as many new ones as may need anything in the Undertaker's line will find it to their interest to call on the undersigned and examine his stock, and will guarantee satisfaction in goods and prices. They will be sold lower than you can buy elsewhere.

DAN F. TRACY.

BROWN'S
IRON
BITTERS.

THE BEST TONIC.
Cures Completely Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Bragg's and Physicians endorse it.

For times, she must and had to go to the Red Front.

A good family carriage and harness for sale. Call at HERALD office.

Valuable gun clothing, shirts, etc., at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

Chicken and turkey cases on hand at the Red Front.

Luther, a son of Charles Campbell, died last Saturday of pneumonia.

We learned from Mr. Berry, Monday, that Rev. James Stevens is no better.

The family of Mr. Alfred Hart are usually all sick, but not dangerously so.

For Rent.—A dwelling-house in Hartford, Ky. For particulars, call on H. B. Taylor, attorney at law.

Red Front has just received to hand of Roller patent flour, the best ever brought to Hartford. Try it.

Mrs. Mary Barnett died last Saturday evening at the residence of W. T. Miller. Her trouble was pronounced heart disease.

W. H. Williams & Son have had the Red Front painted. It is a Red Front one enough now. Mr. T. C. Westerfield did the painting.

Mr. Tom Landrum, of the vicinity of Wilson's mills, has moved with his family to the Mosberry farm, about six miles north of town.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach the funeral services of Mrs. Joshua Barnett and two children at Point Pleasant September 30th, 1883.

That the coffee at the Red Front was cheap at 12c. Try it.

Z. Wayne Griffin & Co. have just received an assortment of pebble eye glasses. If you need anything in that line, call on them and get the genuine goods.

Mrs. Wm. R. Rowe, of Centerville, wrote to the American No. 7 Sewing Machine Company, "I saw the No. 7 operated, and was so delighted I cannot rest till I own one."

All first class sewing machines have from 3 to 12 wearing points visible when the machine is tipped up. Only look at the New American No. 7 if you want to see simplicity simplified.

Daniel King, son of Mrs. King, living on Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin's farm, two miles above town, while at mill last Thursday, was killed by a mill on the head making an ugly wound.

Rev. Mr. Worham, of the Old School Presbyterian church, will preach here Sabbath next at 11 o'clock. The church going people will doubtless hear an excellent sermon on that occasion.

Master Roy Gregory, son of Judge W. F. Gregory, had a tumor about the size of a man's thumb on the outer angle of the orbit one day last week. The operation was performed by Drs. Pendleton and Baird. He is doing well.

Mr. Harry Jackson, of Rockport, got out on the neck and face Saturday night by a knife in the hands of a negro. We have not learned the particulars sufficiently to attempt to give them.

Thomas & Kinsley are receiving the largest assortment of paints ever before brought to this place. They have also a nice assortment of books, stationery, notions, fancy toilet articles, etc. Give them a call.

Thanks to Miss Ellen Kiper, of Cayesville, for a bouquet of most beautiful flowers elegantly and nicely arranged with her own deft fingers. They are of the richest fragrance, variegated colors, and call forth our sincerest thanks to the fair donor.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Mrs. Herman, South Carrollton, Ky., Wednesday, September 12, 1883, by Rev. W. P. Bennett, Mr. James A. Howe and Miss Ida Sausberry. The couple have our hearty good wishes as they journey down the stream of life.

It is not necessary to call the attention of our readers to H. Small's mammoth advertisement in this issue. It speaks for itself. Read it and see what he has to say to you.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. S. L. Fulkerson, of Smithfield. She has been very sick for a long time and is not improving. She is at present with some of her family relatives at South Carrollton. The HERALD with her many friends and relatives, trusts that she may speedily recover.

Strayed—From the farm of the undersigned, near Goshen, Ohio county, Ky., about Sept. 1st, one red and white speckled steer, not quite 2 years old, weight about 550 lbs.; under half crop under bit in ear; was in good condition. Any information thankfully received.

The suit in the Grayson Circuit Court of Miss Ellen Kiper against Mrs. Adeline Barnes, has been settled. The suit was for slander. Mrs. Barnes acknowledged and permitted it to go on record, that she knew at nothing against the character of Miss Kiper, which was satisfactory, and the suit was dismissed.

This section was visited Sunday and Sunday night with light showers of rain, the first in four and a half weeks. It laid the dust and revived vegetation a little, but came too late to help the crops and did not replenish the supply of water, which is about exhausted, as many of the springs, wells and branches are dry.

W. T. King has on hand and for sale a large stock of buggies, spring wagons and farm wagons, all of the very best make, which will be sold at the very lowest rate. Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

DAN F. TRACY.

BROWN'S
IRON
BITTERS.

THE BEST TONIC.
Cures Completely Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Bragg's and Physicians endorse it.

For times, she must and had to go to the Red Front.

A good family carriage and harness for sale. Call at HERALD office.

Valuable gun clothing, shirts, etc., at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

Chicken and turkey cases on hand at the Red Front.

Luther, a son of Charles Campbell, died last Saturday of pneumonia.

We learned from Mr. Berry, Monday, that Rev. James Stevens is no better.

The family of Mr. Alfred Hart are usually all sick, but not dangerously so.

For Rent.—A dwelling-house in Hartford, Ky. For particulars, call on H. B. Taylor, attorney at law.

Red Front has just received to hand of Roller patent flour, the best ever brought to Hartford. Try it.

Mrs. Mary Barnett died last Saturday evening at the residence of W. T. Miller. Her trouble was pronounced heart disease.

W. H. Williams & Son have had the Red Front painted. It is a Red Front one enough now. Mr. T. C. Westerfield did the painting.

Mr. Tom Landrum, of the vicinity of Wilson's mills, has moved with his family to the Mosberry farm, about six miles north of town.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach the funeral services of Mrs. Joshua Barnett and two children at Point Pleasant September 30th, 1883.

That the coffee at the Red Front was cheap at 12c. Try it.

Z. Wayne Griffin & Co. have just received an assortment of pebble eye glasses. If you need anything in that line, call on them and get the genuine goods.

Mrs. Wm. R. Rowe, of Centerville, wrote to the American No. 7 Sewing Machine Company, "I saw the No. 7 operated, and was so delighted I cannot rest till I own one."

All first class sewing machines have from 3 to 12 wearing points visible when the machine is tipped up. Only look at the New American No. 7 if you want to see simplicity simplified.

Daniel King, son of Mrs. King, living on Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin's farm, two miles above town, while at mill last Thursday, was killed by a mill on the head making an ugly wound.

Rev. Mr. Worham, of the Old School Presbyterian church, will preach here Sabbath next at 11 o'clock. The church going people will doubtless hear an excellent sermon on that occasion.

Master Roy Gregory, son of Judge W. F. Gregory, had a tumor about the size of a man's thumb on the outer angle of the orbit one day last week. The operation was performed by Drs. Pendleton and Baird. He is doing well.

Mr. Harry Jackson, of Rockport, got out on the neck and face Saturday night by a knife in the hands of a negro. We have not learned the particulars sufficiently to attempt to give them.

Thomas & Kinsley are receiving the largest assortment of paints ever before brought to this place. They have also a nice assortment of books, stationery, notions, fancy toilet articles, etc. Give them a call.

Thanks to Miss Ellen Kiper, of Cayesville, for a bouquet of most beautiful flowers elegantly and nicely arranged with her own deft fingers. They are of the richest fragrance, variegated colors, and call forth our sincerest thanks to the fair donor.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Mrs. Herman, South Carrollton, Ky., Wednesday, September 12, 1883, by Rev. W. P. Bennett, Mr. James A. Howe and Miss Ida Sausberry. The couple have our hearty good wishes as they journey down the stream of life.

It is not necessary to call the attention of our readers to H. Small's mammoth advertisement in this issue. It speaks for itself. Read it and see what he has to say to you.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. S. L. Fulkerson, of Smithfield. She has been very sick for a long time and is not improving. She is at present with some of her family relatives at South Carrollton. The HERALD with her many friends and relatives, trusts that she may speedily recover.

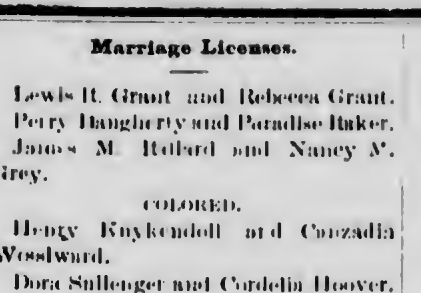

Strayed—From the farm of the undersigned, near Goshen, Ohio county, Ky., about Sept. 1st, one red and white speckled steer, not quite 2 years old, weight about 550 lbs.; under half crop under bit in ear; was in good condition. Any information thankfully received.

The suit in the Grayson Circuit Court of Miss Ellen Kiper against Mrs. Adeline Barnes, has been settled. The suit was for slander. Mrs. Barnes acknowledged and permitted it to go on record, that she knew at nothing against the character of Miss Kiper, which was satisfactory, and the suit was dismissed.

This section was visited Sunday and Sunday night with light showers of rain, the first in four and a half weeks. It laid the dust and revived vegetation a little, but came too late to help the crops and did not replenish the supply of water, which is about exhausted, as many of the springs, wells and branches are dry.

W. T. King has on hand and for sale a large stock of buggies, spring wagons and farm wagons, all of the very best make, which will be sold at the very lowest rate. Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

DAN F. TRACY.

BROWN'S
IRON
BITTERS.

THE BEST TONIC.
Cures Completely Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Bragg's and Physicians endorse it.

For times, she must and had to go to the Red Front.

A good family carriage and harness for sale. Call at HERALD office.

Valuable gun clothing, shirts, etc., at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

Chicken and turkey cases on hand at the Red Front.

Luther, a son of Charles Campbell, died last Saturday of pneumonia.

We learned from Mr. Berry, Monday, that Rev. James Stevens is no better.

The family of Mr. Alfred Hart are usually all sick, but not dangerously so.

For Rent.—A dwelling-house in Hartford, Ky. For particulars, call on H. B. Taylor, attorney at law.

Red Front has just received to hand of Roller patent flour, the best ever brought to Hartford. Try it.

Mrs. Mary Barnett died last Saturday evening at the residence of W. T. Miller. Her trouble was pronounced heart disease.

W. H. Williams & Son have had the Red Front painted. It is a Red Front one enough now. Mr. T. C. Westerfield did the painting.

Mr. Tom Landrum, of the vicinity of Wilson's mills, has moved with his family to the Mosberry farm, about six miles north of town.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach the funeral services of Mrs. Joshua Barnett and two children at Point Pleasant September 30th, 1883.

That the coffee at the Red Front was cheap at 12c. Try it.

Z. Wayne Griffin & Co. have just received an assortment of pebble eye glasses. If you need anything in that line, call on them and get the genuine goods.

Mrs. Wm. R. Rowe, of Centerville, wrote to the American No. 7 Sewing Machine Company, "I saw the No. 7 operated, and was so delighted I cannot rest till I own one."

All first class sewing machines have from 3 to 12 wearing points visible when the machine is tipped up. Only look at the New American No. 7 if you want to see simplicity simplified.

Daniel King, son of Mrs. King, living on Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin's farm, two miles above town, while at mill last Thursday, was killed by a mill on the head making an ugly wound.

Rev. Mr. Worham, of the Old School Presbyterian church, will preach here Sabbath next at 11 o'clock. The church going people will doubtless hear an excellent sermon on that occasion.

Master Roy Gregory, son of Judge W. F. Gregory, had a tumor about the size of a man's thumb on the outer angle of the orbit one day last week. The operation was performed by Drs. Pendleton and Baird. He is doing well.

Mr. Harry Jackson, of Rockport, got out on the neck and face Saturday night by a knife in the hands of a negro. We have not learned the particulars sufficiently to attempt to give them.

Thomas & Kinsley are receiving the largest assortment of paints ever before brought to this place. They have also a nice assortment of books, stationery, notions, fancy toilet articles, etc. Give them a call.

Thanks to Miss Ellen Kiper, of Cayesville, for a bouquet of most beautiful flowers elegantly and nicely arranged with her own deft fingers. They are of the richest fragrance, variegated colors, and call forth our sincerest thanks to the fair donor.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Mrs. Herman, South Carrollton, Ky., Wednesday, September 12, 1883, by Rev. W. P. Bennett, Mr. James A. Howe and Miss Ida Sausberry. The couple have our hearty good wishes as they journey down the stream of life.

It is not necessary to call the attention of our readers to H. Small's mammoth advertisement in this issue. It speaks for itself. Read it and see what he has to say to you.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. S. L. Fulkerson, of Smithfield. She has been very sick for a long time and is not improving. She is at present with some of her family relatives at South Carrollton. The HERALD with her many friends and relatives, trusts that she may speedily recover.

Strayed—From the farm of the undersigned, near Goshen, Ohio county, Ky., about Sept. 1st, one red and white speckled steer, not quite 2 years old, weight about 550 lbs.; under half crop under bit in ear; was in good condition. Any information thankfully received.

The suit in the Grayson Circuit Court of Miss Ellen Kiper against Mrs. Adeline Barnes, has been settled. The suit was for slander. Mrs. Barnes acknowledged and permitted it to go on record, that she knew at nothing against the character of Miss Kiper, which was satisfactory, and the suit was dismissed.

This section was visited Sunday and Sunday night with light showers of rain, the first in four and a half weeks. It laid the dust and revived vegetation a little, but came too late to help the crops and did not replenish the supply of water, which is about exhausted, as many of the springs, wells and branches are dry.

W. T. King has on hand and for sale a large stock of buggies, spring wagons and farm wagons, all of the very best make, which will be sold at the very lowest rate. Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

DAN F. TRACY.

BROWN'S
IRON
BITTERS.

THE BEST TONIC.
Cures Completely Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Bragg's and Physicians endorse it.

For times, she must and had to go to the Red Front.

A good family carriage and harness for sale. Call at HERALD office.

Valuable gun clothing, shirts, etc., at Z. A. Rosenberg's.

Chicken and turkey cases on hand at the Red Front.

Luther, a son of Charles Campbell, died last Saturday of pneumonia.

We learned from Mr. Berry, Monday, that Rev. James Stevens is no better.

The family of Mr. Alfred Hart are usually all sick, but not dangerously so.

For Rent.—A dwelling-house in Hartford, Ky. For particulars, call on H. B. Taylor, attorney at law.

Red Front has just received to hand of Roller patent flour, the best ever brought to Hartford. Try it.

Mrs. Mary Barnett died last Saturday evening at the residence of W. T. Miller. Her trouble was pronounced heart disease.

W. H. Williams & Son have had the Red Front painted. It is a Red Front one enough now. Mr. T. C. Westerfield did the painting.

Mr. Tom Landrum, of the vicinity of Wilson's mills, has moved with his family to the Mosberry farm, about six miles north of town.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach the funeral services of Mrs. Joshua Barnett and two children at Point Pleasant September 30th, 1883.

That the coffee at the Red Front was cheap at 12c. Try it.

Z. Wayne Griffin & Co. have just received an assortment of pebble eye glasses. If you need anything in that line, call on them and get the genuine goods.

Mrs. Wm. R. Rowe, of Centerville, wrote to the American No. 7 Sewing Machine Company, "I saw the No. 7 operated, and was so delighted I cannot rest till I own one."

All first class sewing machines have from 3 to 12 wearing points visible when the machine is tipped up. Only look at the New American No. 7 if you want to see simplicity simplified.

Daniel King, son of Mrs. King, living on Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin's farm, two miles above town, while at mill last Thursday, was killed by a mill on the head making an ugly wound.

Rev. Mr.

